Hidden Cove Elementary is committed to improving the achievement of all students. The Every Child Succeeds Act (ESSA) significantly raises expectations for schools. All students are expected to meet or exceed state standards in reading and math. In order to meet the accountability demands of the Every Child Succeeds Act (ESSA), Hidden Cove has set high standards for improving academic achievement in order to improve the quality of education for all students. This achievement can only be reached if the parents and school work together. To ensure that all students succeed and the achievement gap is closed, the school and parents must communicate. Both the school and the parents agree to do the following to support their child's education.

THE SCHOOL AGREES:

- To provide high-quality curriculum (what your child is taught)
- To provide high-quality instruction (how your child is taught)
- To schedule a parent-teacher conference as needed
- To provide a safe and supportive learning environment
- To provide parents with reports on their child's progress
- To provide opportunities for parental involvement
- To provide materials for reading at home as requested

THE PARENT AGREES:

- To send the child to school daily and on time, unless ill
- To ensure the child is well-rested and ready for a day of learning
- To emphasize child's responsibility for class work, homework and being prepared for school
- To emphasize the child's responsibility in following the school's code of conduct
- To discuss what the child has learned at school and to read daily all materials sent home
- To read with, or to listen to the child read each day
- To communicate in person or electronically with the child's teacher if there is a question or concern
- To attend parent-teacher conferences as requested
- To be involved in school activities
